Willis Klein Lock/Security Announces Purchase of Jim Klein Lock and Safe

Long time family businesses combine services to become largest leader in residential and commercial security

Louisville, KY (Jan. 6, 2012) – Willis Klein Lock/Security, Louisville’s leader in door security, safes and decorative hardware, announced today the acquisition of Jim Klein Lock and Safe, a local premier lock and security company. The purchase will bring a third Willis Klein Lock/Security location to the east end.

“We are very excited to announce the purchase of Jim Klein Lock and Safe. It represents two locally owned companies joining as one to bring Louisville our unparalleled customer service, security and safes to an extended market,” said Larry Klein, President of Willis Klein Lock and Security. “The new Hikes Point location will slightly differ from our Decorative Hardware and Plumbing Showrooms in St. Matthews and Middletown, but will continue to offer a keying center, safes, residential and commercial hardware, ”.

With the acquisition of a new location, Willis Klein Lock/Security continues to move forward in their commitment of keeping the Derby City safe and secure. Jim Klein Lock and Safe turned over its long time heritage in the service/locksmith to Willis Klein Lock/Security January 3rd 2012.

“As a long time expert in our industry, we wish our best to Jim Klein as he enters his retirement. As a member of the Klein family, we strive to continue the services he’s provided throughout the years,” said Larry Klein.

Willis Klein Lock/Security will design an area created for their dynamic and unique display of full product assortment. The new location will display a variety of locks, safes and a new keying center. With these displays throughout the new location, Willis Klein Lock/Security reveals their diverse selection of offerings sure to meet any residential or commercial needs from the smallest repair to the largest access control system.

The new location in McMahan Plaza & Center, 3077 Breckenridge Lane, next to Feeder Supply, will allow clients to plan their security or hardware projects with the assistance of trained specialists with the level of service, security and integrity they long deserve and expect.
